

INDIVIDUAL FUNDRAISING SUGGESTIONS

- Everyday Hero page
- Workplace morning tea
- School Free Dress Day
- Work Free Dress Day
- Speak about Life Cycle for CanTeen at a Service Club (and ask for a donation)
- Raffle/Guessing competition – such as “how many Lindt chocolates in the jar?” – desirable prizes
- Cycling tipping, Melbourne Cup Sweeps
- Home gatherings similar to Biggest Morning Tea – could be board games night, music night, afternoon tea
- Head Shave in the city at National Bandanna Day
- Out of Office message during the event – tell everyone where you are and suggest they donate. “Sponsor me and I will read your email first when I return”
- Skype status update – add a message about your fundraising – this stays prominent unlike FaceBook messages which move down the page
- Local letter drop explaining your Life Cycle for CanTeen challenge and asking to donate via the account details on the website (or to you) – saves face-to-face request if you are uncomfortable with that

PAVE THE WAY (for those who like to work in the background)

- Search for grant applications and prepare submissions
- Help prepare business plan
- Searching for donors/sponsors to reduce costs eg muesli bars, ice donations
- Research jersey specials and design for Life Cycle merchandise sales
- Make short promotional video clips – CanTeen members, rider profiles, for riders to use
- Search for Corporate Sponsorship (eg Toyota because of TLCC connection)/suggest offers in return
- Seek media coverage
